

I am emailing in response to a message from the Indiana Attorney General regarding the Telephone Privacy legislation. Apparently there has been some action taken by some of the banks in the state to try to weaken the legislation in order to have the right to make sales calls to people doing business with them. I implore you not to weaken this law. I do not want to succumb to the maddening sales calls again. Thank you